Proparing Fora Huge Dram Corps-The Sixth Ward Meeting-At the First Ward Thursday, Etc.

Hon. E.G. Woolley. On the stand twenty drams were piled up, intended for the use of the dram corps. Mr. R. D. Weils ex-plainel in a lacid and interesting manner the difference between state and territorial governments. Mr. B. S. Young resided the "Paralod Registrat" Mr. S. A. Konner was introduced by the president. He said:

presumms. It is any desire this evening to say something ex-planatory of the two parties who are lighting for supermary in this territory. A pollutal party should have some great aim and polley in its inception and work. The so called Liberal party has none. It is simply a mole gathered together to oppose and oppress a religious organization. (Appulance)

They have adopted us an emblem in the com-geompaign a bross carpet bag, which is very propriate, as they are mostly flequitionals, and the name of herpoliticans always conjures up maintenance from the carpet has rule of the south.

lause! E. G. Woodey said the necessity is imper-for people to come out and aid in every the coming campaign. Let us show the alse we have strength in numbers as well necessaries.

Liberals we have strength in numbers as well as in principle, and a proper days to Washington to defend our people before the washington to defend our people before the washington court of the United States in the falsho test cain case. That measure illustrates the methods of the Liberal party and is contrary to all free government. If they gain cabinot just sure laws will no exacted for our benefit, and of well be deprived of our regards as is our party of the contract of the waterful and writing to labor to the continued supremiser.
